A variety of song styles from soft ballads to up-tempo dance pop tunes - Childrens Music. All very funny and will definitely strike your funny bone. Real pet voices are used. You'll be singing along instantly. These are well-constructed songs, both instrumentally and lyrically. Some tracks are theatrical skits where animals and humans interact. Several comparisons inevitably come to mind while these tracks tickle your funny bone: Don Was (Walk the Dinosaur); Kenny Loggins (House At Pooh Corner); the 1970s comedy of the Firesign Theatre Troupe; Barking Dogs (Jingle Bells). Joey quips another comparison, "throw Kenny Loggins and Weird Al in a room together to write songs for Sesame street". But really folks, this album is in a class by itself. Using high tech recording techniques, he recorded his cat Jordy meowing. He then recorded other animals at the county fair and at his neighbor's homes. The results were then fed into a digital audio workstation. This allowed construction of the classicly-destined songs on this CD.
