John and Julie Gaulke are from Milwaukee, WI. John plays the saxophone, keyboards, Akai EWI, Yamaha WX7 and percussion. Julie plays keyboards, percussion and adds other instrumentation. "We've been writing music together since 1989. After several years we decided to put out our own CD and after a lot of work 'Stepping Out' was born. It's been a long road with many twists and turns. The amazing thing to note is that we have done it ourselves with little help beyond our own abilities. And that is a great feeling" adds John and Julie. "We believe our music is a clear reflection of who we really are and where we're coming from in life," says Julie. "We always approach the music from the heart of our life experiences" adds John. "We're expressing and sharing our innermost selves through our music. We view our music as a window into the soul of our marriage, which is all about inspiring continuous growth, acceptance, unity and lot's of love". The music offers a sampling of John and Julies' visions. 'Stepping Out' and 'Loving You is Easy' both have very catchy melodies that stay with you long after they end. On 'Summer Sunshine' and 'Seek the way to fly' Johns sax playing soars to the uppermost heights of emotion. 'Just for you' is superb evidence of their free flowing heartfelt melodic sound. 'Thanks for all Your Love' is a medium tempo song that builds to an energetic climax. On the Latin flavored 'The Significant People' the arrangement flows on the power of strong improvisations.
