Americana Country Pop album with immediate charm. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, ROCK: Folk Rock
Details: When Kellee Bradley plays shows with artists like Jo Dee Messina, John Mellencamp, Huey Lewis, Christopher Cross, Chicago and Crosby, Stills and Nash she leaves the crowd yelling "encore!" Kellee is the whole package! She's a great songwriter, with an incredible voice, and a dynamic performer. The Seattle-based singer-songwriter started attracting national attention with the release of "The Season" - her first full-length album. It was produced by R. Chris Murphy (Martin Sexton, King Crimson, Venetowest.com) "The Season" received two JP Folks Awards for Best Contemporary Album and Best Contemporary Song (Yes Yes) JPFolks.com. Kellee recorded her second album in Nashville with producer Ron Bennett. It's an amazing album, featuring top Nashville players who have played with artists like the Neville Brothers, The Dixie Chicks, Ozzy Osbourne and Laura Love. Kellee sings the National Anthem for the Seattle Mariner's as well as other local Seattle events, like the Olympic Torch Ceremony in 2002. She has licensed songs to DMX as well as television. Her songs straddle the pop/country genres which gives her music wide appeal. RECENT AWARDS 2002 Washington Emerging Artist Award, sponsored by Redhook, NARAS and Made in Washington Stores 2002-03 ASCAP Award
