Details: The world first got a taste of Kynt in 1997 when bootleg copies of his demo "Day After Day" began to surface in clubs around the world. With a spark of interest and a desire to pursue music professionally, Kynt made his presence known. In 2000, thanks largely in part to Mp3.com, Kynt signed several songs to Grammy award nominated and house music legend Roy Davis Jr's Underground Therapy Muzik. At the same time, Kynt gained international exposure through the internet which led him to a slew of #1 songs on various Mp3, DJ, club chart listings. Now with more than 1,000,000 live streams, music business service plays, downloads, and several independent single deals, Kynt is prepared to take his music to the next level. What they said: "Sounds like a collaboration between Prince, Madonna and RuPaulfeaturing male vocals that could inspire crowds to Vogue. Strong club rhythms and layered lyrics about love and beauty." - Listen.com "Kynt (New Orleans) Kynt is Musician, Lyricist, Producer, DJ, Dancer, Performer, Singer and perhaps the best Male Soul/Urban/R&B/ Dance artist I have heard in a very long while. With over 109,000 spins on MP3...I would say others are finding out about him as well. Currently #1 on Besonic's Soul/Urban/R&B USA UK Charts." - Soundwerkz.com"

This artist from the United States of America is brilliant at his work. Not only does he create good garage music, he is also a choreographer, a model and a vocalist, as heard on all his tracks. Garage music is getting very popular in the music industry, the perfect timing for a hard working artists as Kynt. His music in the hands of a major record label would be appreciated by clubbers, DJs and any individuals that enjoy Garage music. Most of the songs in his album "Introducing... Kynt!" could get to the top 10 in the UK's charts without a doubt." - Gibraltar Live Music Society
