"A delight to the soul. Witty, insightful and joyful, the songs are sunny enough to keep children dancing, but thoughtful enough to appeal to the adults in the room." 15 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: Melanie Hoffman have been writing songs and performing with her husband, Roger, since 1982. Roger's appearances on CD include vocal solos with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and dozens of other recorded works. He has received awards for his compositions including the CLIO (pronounced KLEE-O) and Peabody awards. As a songwriter, his most recognized work is "Consider the Lilies of the Field" title-song of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir's best-selling CD. Melanie's life-time focus has been on art, literature and music for children. Her best known writings for children include the audio series the Scripture Scouts and Alexander's Amazing Adventures. Together, they have also written for National Geographic television. They have released nine CDs of their songs and have taken their message in word and song throughout the United States and in Jerusalem. Roger and Melanie, with their partners, Marvin Payne and Steven Kapp Perry, have written extensively for children and are presently developing Scripture Scouts.com, a groundbreaking new internet-based television and radio station for children that teaches the joyous doctrines of the gospel of Jesus Christ. They have recently completed writing a pilot for a childrens television series on relationships for BYU-TV. The Hoffmans have created the "Faith in Christ" series for young children, beginning with a new CD in 2006, "Lullabies of Jesus and Other Gentle Songs." They are currently in production on a second CD, "Stories of Jesus," a presentation for children about the life of the Savior in song. They have four sons who enjoy working in the media with them.
