Miria L'auroel is a composer who lives in the Jackson, MS, USA area. Miria has been a performing musician for most of her life, and a lullaby composer for the last twenty-five years. Miria's flowing, peaceful lullabies are dreamy, luminous, mystical and fun. Her child songs are not just children's lullabies; as her lullaby CD provides a magical listening experience for kids and toddlers, and also recalls the magic of childhood for parents and people all over the world who are kids at heart who love her lullabies. Miria writes numerous children's songs, and usually includes a love song in each lullaby CD's collection of babies' lullabies. Miria prefers vocal lullabies, as she feels that vocal music has the most comforting effect in children's lullabies for a happy trip to baby's Dreamland, the starry place where dreams begin. In the featured lullaby CD, "Goodnight, Mister Moon", each children's song pairs unique lullaby lyrics with a lovely instrumental background for an enchanted listening experience. All of the lullabies in the "Goodnight, Mister Moon" Lullaby CD are original, composed by Miria. There are many traditional lullabies which are very beautiful, and Miria loves these lullabies. But there are so many lullaby songs which are still unwritten, and Miria hears them singing in the wind and whispering through the leaves of the trees, and wants to write them down and send out their lovely melodies to all who want to hear. Growing up in the country, Miria loved the beautiful bright moon and the millions of stars that could be seen away from city lights, the tall lonely pine trees, the calls of whippoorwills at dusk. Her lullaby songs celebrate the beauty of the night sky, the lullabies hidden in the sounds of wind and stream, and the magic of childhood. Listen to "Goodnight, Mister Moon" Lullaby CD and be transported to a timeless, enchanted place where anything is possible, and where dreams come true. These lovely children's lullabies will cradle you in their magic. Sugar Moon Lullabies was born when Miria saw how much her lullabies meant to a few children who received them as gifts. These little children did not just like the lullabies, they loved them! They were such loyal, devoted fans of the lullaby CDs that Miria knew that babies and children everywhere would love her child songs, and she began planning a way to make them available to all children. Sugar Moon Lullabies is the result. Now, not only kids but their parents and other grownups enjoy Miria's lullaby CD, "Goodnight, Mister Moon." Several people have said, "I listen to it all the time!" One major electronics store has used it as a demo CD for their sound equipment because "It sounds good, it has clean lyrics, and it sells a lot of equipment for us." One daddy wanted the lullaby CD for his two little girls, then took it to his office to listen to it, and liked it so much he wouldn't let the children take it! (Miria shipped him a second CD so the children could listen to the lullabies too). Miria herself has a testimonial: after many years of insomnia, this lullaby CD puts her to sleep right away and helps her sleep like a baby. What bliss!
