Wild fluctuations you could swear its jazz then Braun whips out a bluesy guitar romp and then slips into a melodic rootsy rock even a little goth rock. 13 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Folk Rock
Details: $5 SPECIAL if you buy 3 albums from the 9000 offered on the $5 special page! Miles To Go has some great reviews: "Miles to Go is a stunner of an album, chock full of vivid imagery, great songwriting and performance talent..." Heidi Drockelman Indie-Music.com "An elastic soprano easily accommodating a bass popping funk rock workout or a spacey blues tinged folkrock song." Tom Heyman listen.com " Her strong, jazz inflected vocal presence. This woman sounds like she could sing Shakespeare. In a smoky nightclub. With a bad case of strep throat..." Annie Lin GoGirlsMusic.com Her genrebending cd's were released independently and her first 3 cd's have been A James Bowers Production. Norine Braun's repertoire ranges from ethereal, reflective moods to sizzling bluesy rock that test the limit of popular music. She is inspired by the struggle to find meaning in the human experience. Her lyrics, although provocative, do not lose touch with her whimsical nature. The song Dancing Sea from her debut Modern Anguish cd is featured on the tv series Wings Over Canada as were the songs Miles To Go and Goodbye Caramel from Miles To Go cd. Norine's song Watching Shadows from Modern Anguish is used in the David Kopp film Internicine. Norine Braun is played on CBC, CKUA and numerous college and university radio stations throughout Canada and the US. Norine's first music video is online at norinebraunand also airs on various cable shows in Canada and US and on Pridevision tv.
