HIGHLIGHTS In 2005, Seay's album "1 Voice" spent almost a year on the New Age Charts, 3 months in the top 10, and was followed by a "Best New Age Song Nomination" in 2006. Her music can be heard worldwide and is a regular addition to Music Choice and XM's new Surround Sound Channel Fine Tuning. Selections can be heard along side, Steeley Dan, Elvis Costello, Enya, Sting and more. ABOUT SEAY "As rare and unique as an identical snowflake, and more haunting than a scream in space", are but some of the descriptions that make up the mystique of Seay. Her voice can be heard on records in Europe and America and recently her visual retrospective of music's pioneers at Dreamworks Universal, The Nashville Jazz Workshop, The Songwriters Guild, and on the ABC Lifetime Channel. Raised in a Renaissance environment, her parents encouraged her artistic and musical pursuits. Her formative years were spent studying piano and voice while being exposed to her father's love of Classical music and her mother's love of R&B and Jazz. "It was inevitable that I would do something in Music" with both Opera, and Jazz singers in her Family. Seay has studied voice with renowned voice coaches Helena Shenel, Seth Riggs and Ray Hyson and has a graduate degree from the prestigious Sotheby's Art Institute, in London. Though American born and raised, her early childhood years were spent in the army, which led her to Korea and Japan, and later Spain and the United Kingdom. It was while living in London that her voice and songwriting got noticed, and her music career began, singing on records and projects for Motown, Warner Music, Carlin and producers and recording artists like Annie Lennox, Mick Ronson and Elaine Paige in London's music scene. Considered incredibly unique by Nashville's standards her place of residence for the last several years, her Engineer says, "Imagine a great songwriter, throw in a unique and interesting sound with the chops of any great singer out there and you have a very special artist". Respected music journalist, RJ Lannan and The New Age Reporter named Seay and her debut release, 1 Voice "One Of The Top Ten Releases for 2005". One of the highlights of her career has been selections from her Top 10 debut "1 Voice" being apart of the XM satellite launch of it's all new surround sound channel in 2006. Her music can be heard along side Elvis Costello, Steeley Dan, Sting, Norah Jones and Ray Charles. In 2007, Seay has moved into the world of film and her voice is featured in the short film Gracie scored with Scott W. Hallgren and directed by Jeff Wedding. Seay lives in Nashville and is married to inspirational author and musician Jules Delgado. She is currently at work on the follow up to 1 Voice. --
