Details: The "Missing Piece" was created in 2003 to be the Next Generation of Rock Music For Kids. Founded by Seth Leah Decker of the Red Door Playhouse, the band's mission is to introduce young music fans to a wide variety of musical sounds and styles ranging from Rock to Country, Jazz to Bluegrass, Big Band to Punk and beyond. Seth Decker's song lyrics are catchy and kid friendly while the music is sophisticated enough to keep the parents dancing right along. They also include great cover tunes that families know and love. Somewhere between the Wiggles and Disney Teen Pop, The Missing Piece has found a place that's all it's own, and continues to fill the need for great family music in Atlanta and nationwide. Recently featured on XM Radios XM Kids channel, The Missing Piece believes that music should be an interactive experience for everyone to take part in and enjoy. -----
