Dancing a Drunken Tango on the rim of Mt. Vesuvius, The Hellblink Sextet infuses a syrup of Gypsy Cabaret Stylings with a whiskey drenched dollop of Pirate Blues, down in the swamps and foothills of the deep, deep south... 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Psychedelic, JAZZ: Weird Jazz Details: "The Hellblink Sextet" self-titled Debut is a surreal adventure through a world of found sound and song. A few words about the 'Blinki's and this record... "The Hellblink Sextet" has raided the junk drawer of popular music and produced an album that is uncompromising, unusual, sometimes uncomfortable and always beautiful. Part Tin Pan Alley and part aural collage, the musical collective has produced an album that is at once unique and somehow strangely familiar" -Steven Uhles The Augusta Chronicle -The album itself is amazing, I'm quite enthralled by it's epic perversity/brilliance. It's a frustrating reminder of what I'd have to travel all the way across the country to experience. Keep up the startlingly creative work. Your terminal fan, Michal -... I also was particularly stunned recently by "False Document" by the Hellblink Sextet out of Augusta, Ga. - total waves of ripping ambience mixed with circus music coming from around the block while you are falling asleep on the sidewalk under a light rain. I can't even say enough things about their website - truly the best flash work I have ever seen...
