Over the last 10 months RJ has put together this debut Cd of irreverent country rockers and touching ballads about life and love and the pursuit of happiness.

The Rowdy Prairie Dogs were conceived in the dusty dreams of Jefferson Otis Keys, a chef and song slinger from Ketchum, Idaho. One day, a beggar and a thief and a minstrel of a man going by the name of RJ, came to town where he ate and drank his fill at the Vintage Restaurant. There, he overheard the story about the most glorious, down to earth band that never was, The Rowdy Prairie Dogs. In the dark of night, RJ stole the name away from Jefferson Otis and rode out of Dodge (or Ketchum as the case might be) headed down valley, across the prairies, beyond the mighty Mississippi to the land they call, Wisconsin. And the rest, as they say is history.....in the making! Stay tuned for more adventures of the Rowdy Prairie Dogs! Coming Soon!
