Details: BIO "Make space in your CD player for this one!"...Easy 99.5 "An Innovative ear to say the least..." S.T.S. Sounds 2002. "This Guy has some of the smoothest vibes I've heard in a while..." The Independent Musician 2002. "Tim creates instrumental concepts that are far more mature and advanced than his tenure in the smooth jazz arena..." ASM Productions 2002 "The creative ability of Tim Watson's writing style is very unique. When asked about the origin of his melodies and flow concepts by fellow musicians and at times even studio engineers he simply says "I don't hear them I see them",and the melodies follow it's just the way I work." "Tim Watson's Debut CD, 'The Tim Watson Project - Soultopia' showcases his talents in composition as well as production and instrumental presence. With producer Fred Smith and one of "Neo Souls" best kept secrets Sabrina Daniels, Tim began construction of Soultopia. While grooves like "Caramel Capuccino," "Is It The End," and "Secret Place," escort you to your very own perfect place it's Tim's subtle way of embracing you with his melodies that make him addictive. Tim has written and produced worship melodies, commercial jingles, and narratives for an inspiring list of clients. His music is used worldwide for everything from radio ads to the smooth backdrops used on Cable Television's the "Weather Channel" Tim says "I believe every musical ability ever given and cultivated by anyone should be used to uplift the soul and inspire the listener to a greater sense of worth and purpose" With musical influences such as 'Loose Ends,' 'Joe Sample,' 'Maze,' 'Bob James,' 'Keiko Matsou,' 'Ramsey Lewis,' 'Stevie Wonder,' 'Earth Wind Fire,' to name a few, Tim has shown that diversity often times is the necessary ingredient for a musical tastes to suit all appetites.
