Details: Benny Burch and his nephew Larry Burch have been playing music professionally for close to 50 years but with different groups and have never had the chance to record until now. With the help of some 'homeboys' from Effingham, Illinois they've put together a nice selection of traditional country and honky-tonk music with a couple of originals contributed by Larry. They do the songs great justice and show they can make you want to get on the dance floor and do some two-steppin'. If you like that sort of thing you'll dig this first offering from these music journeymen.
