Music has evolved from a habitual task to a natural and sincere passion of mine. After countless private lessons, rehearsals and performances, the fundamentals of music deeply ingrained themselves in me. My childhood allowed me to experiment with different instruments such as the French Horn, trumpet, guitar and piano to understand the richness that music could offer. And then I found it. My sincere passion of music was found through the piano. I could sit at the keys and play for hours- creating meticulous melodies, delicate harmonies and honest lyrics all interrelating to form my art. I consider music to be an expression of myself and a remedial delight for my audience. I take satisfaction in knowing that many can enjoy my gift while interpreting it to their own taste. Art is vital in our culture for a healthy welfare, and my interest continues to expand. I hope my contribution might impel others to appreciate the authentic beauty that we hold.
