Details: Josh Klaus and Joel Klaus are brothers who grew up in San Antonio, TX that have developed a passion for music. They have been playing and making music since they first learned how to play their instruments. With the encouragement of their dad Duane Klaus, who also plays lead guitar, they have continued to play and to grow in their musical abilities. Starting in high school the brothers started writing songs and recorded two records over a few years in a studio in their house. Duane, Josh, and Joel have now put together a record of their newest material and are now calling themselves Crossover.
