When one hears the words flowing from the mouths of these individuals, it is evident that it is all about ministry. Led by Derrick Hall, the founder of the group, they sing songs of love, hope, and inspiration, driven from a desire to share the gospel and win souls for Christ by singing of the joy that is found in Him. All 13 tracks found on Victory, the group's third independently released project, were written and produced by Derrick. The versatility found in "Victory" transcends both traditional and contemporary style. Fusing together a lyrical mix of hope, inspiration, love, and gratitude on top of jazz and R&B flavored tracks, resulting in a delicious blend of contemporary and traditional gospel music that can be enjoyed by all ages and cultures. An artist definitely led by the Spirit, Derrick is a gifted and accomplished musician, artist, songwriter, and producer. Derrick's versatility and innovative style has distinguished him as a recognizable talent in the music industry. Having demonstrated his musical abilities at a young age and as the son of parents who instilled both family values and the importance of living a Christ-centered life, it was only natural that gospel music would become his calling. Often referred to "as one of the best musicians in the Bay Area," Derrick is often called upon to serve as music director for live recordings and events. Derrick Hall's professionalism and artistry has afforded him the opportunity to have recorded with, accompanied, or penned music for such notable artists as Edwin Hawkins, Tramaine Hawkins, Daryl Coley, Lawrence Matthews, and Kim Burrell. Ms. Burrell's, 2001 hit "I'll Keep Holding On," featured on the 2001 WOW gospel compilation was co-written by Derrick Hall. As a group,

Derrick Hall Company's main purpose is to empower, encourage and spread the gospel with music that appeals to all ages, demographics, and cultures. It is important to the group as a whole that they are viewed to "practice what they preach" and that they strive to live the life they sing about.
