DEYANSA breaks onto the scene with a CD of inner strength and fortitude. "Holding On To Life" and all that is good in it, giving, getting and sharing love, hope and understanding in this mixed up world... You can't pass on this very special debut CD... Be 14 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: DEYANSA "Holding On To Life" SKCD025 Deyansa breaks onto the scene with a CD of inner strength and fortitude Deyansa was born Wayne Fearon in May Pen, Clarendon, Jamaica in 1973 and while he was always singing and writing songs it wasn't till 12 years ago that he got serious and started to write down his lyrics and working out the songs on his acoustic guitar. Deyansa hooked up with fellow Jamaicans, Keith Senior and Jonathan Ford. The band toured with such reggae dignitaries as Culture, Meditations, Augustus Pablo, Cutty Ranks, and even Gregory Isaacs! Giving their able support on tours that took them throughout the Caribbean, Europe and Asia. Keith Senior and Jonathan Ford had been session musicians for Coxsone Dodd, Lee "The Upsetter" Perry, and Ms. Pottinger performing on many hit songs. They also worked on such great projects as "The Black Ark Dub" and "The Upsetters" albums. Keith is a multi-talented musician who is very comfortable in the studio no matter what instrument you place in front of him, keyboards, bass and rhythm guitar, or drums. Jonathan is an accomplished bass player and was one of the original members of the Rhythm 1000 band. Rounding off the core of Riddim Zone is Ian Joseph, a drummer with a passion who hails from the tropical islands of Trinidad Tobago. He joined the band two years ago after touring in Asia. Deyansa and Riddim Zone are here. Holding On To Life - SKCD025 Produced and Arranged by Silver Kamel 2005
