

Mp3 Dj Nexus - Groove Theory

A continuous mix of Twin Cities house mixed with a handful of floor pounding dance then topped off with a dash of trance. 19 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Dance, ELECTRONIC: House Details: DJ neXus exploded onto the Club and Dance scene with a style that was all his own. Instead of taking the same club anthems that have been mixed, remixed, and mixed again, neXus decided to start from scratch and create his own style of floor pounding wall shaking ear candy. Before neXus could earn a name for himself he started out hanging with friends who were DJs, keeping a close eye on how the whole DJ scene worked. It was sometime in 1994 when he decided that he was going to give it a try. Throughout the years neXus learned the DJing skills by reading books, watching videos, just good old fashion learn as you go mentality. In 1999 neXus bought his first DJ setup and from there on out the rest is history. DJ neXus is known as a man of many styles and is always willing to take risks. Although neXus hasn't dominated the club scene just yet, he has managed to catch the ears of radio stations out in the UK as well as a few other overseas air waves. Techno, Trance, Hip Hop, Ambient, House and more, neXus has touched them all. With his first House CD released in late 2006, Welcome 2 My House neXus turned a few heads with a new sound and flavor. He has also managed to flood the underground Hip Hop scene with two highly successful mix tapes Midwest Most Wanted, The Introduction vol 1 and 2 Underground 4 Radio. From there neXus has worked on many remix projects for up and coming artists and bands, and has placed four completely solo produced albums under his belt. With a follow up from his first club banger Welcome 2 My House comes a new hard pounding floor stomper called Groove Theory which is sure to be some sweet ear candy for today's clubheads. This time he is letting it be known that he is no follower. With this new sound NeXus is covering all grounds so I think it would only be fair to say that this DJ is about to bring the house down.
