GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: The music ministry of Hosea Redditt has touched the lives of many people both far and near. Born and raised in St. Gabriel, Louisiana, he sang his first solo at the age of three years old. He began playing the piano at the age of eight years old. He attended Southern University and majored in Music Education. He is currently the minister of music at three churches in the Baton Rouge area and the founder of a gospel group, "Complete Praise". Hosea released this CD, "Mama's Boy" in memory of his mother who passed in January of 2003. This project consists of various styles of gospel music (traditional, hip-hop, and jazz). He encourages you to make this CD a part of your music library. Hosea hopes that it will be a blessing to you. Contact information: Jireh Records P.O.
