Related styles: URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: The buzz has begun. I know what you're thinking. Here's yet another gorgeous female solo artist looking to find her way. THINK AGAIN. LaDeana (Luh-Dee-Nuh) Michelle, multi-octave vocalist, actress, producer, songwriter, scriptwriter, musician, arranger, composer, CEO, poet, print model, author, concept designer and more, is an emerging POWERHOUSE. The question is...what CAN'T she do? She IS the way. A relative of the legendary Sam Cooke, the late Eddie Kendrick (Temptations) the Pointer Sisters and the historical Dr. David Satcher (1st African American U.S. Surgeon General) this exotic beauty is not just an artist and entertainer, but an entity. A mogul. Visionary. Role Model. She represents style. Class. A Tyler Perry, Oprah Winfrey, Diddy and Kimora Lee Simmons wrapped into one of the most beautiful voices EVER. Her incredible voice (of which I can't really compare it with anyone else's) holds a distinct, unique beauty that will simply grab you and hold you tight. Her mere presence draws you in. Her creative performances captivate. Expect the unexpected-- she can be a clever and strategic chameleon. Tupac Shakur fondly nicknamed her Worldwide because he always believed that's what she'd be one day...and repeatedly told her so. Tupac knew. Be prepared. LaDeana Michelle is a timeless, highly intelligent, multi-faceted businesswoman. She strikes like a silent cobra in the night. You don't quite see her coming, but you will feel her impact seemingly out of nowhere. Yes. She has worked with some of the best in the business, but retreated (along with her business partners) to devise an overall master plan for her career--especially after the downward shift in music industry operations. She stepped back and took CONTROL. You're simply gonna love her. She is not just singing, acting, writing, arranging and composing. Nope. This girl is full-fledged PRODUCING. She is NOT playing around. R&B, Neo-Soul, Pop, Gospel, House, Hip-Hop, Rock, Adult Contemporary, Country and even Jazz production capabilities. Screenplays. Video Treatments. Commercial concepts. Jingles. Fashion design. Marketing. Business. Real Estate. Budgeting. I dont have enough print to continue the categories. Bottom line? This divas got skills. She'll have fans for life. She could easily BE the next Cover Girl, as easily as she could design an entire future line of the companys cosmetics, write several TV commercials for the line and top it off by writing, producing and recording music jingles for it all. HOT. Shes long-awaited. I dont think were ready. LaDeana Michelle, who will finally break her industry silence with a worldwide full album CD release (and THIS disc is BOILING---that VOICE!!), self-made millionaire status through business ventures, several upcoming films (she IS a screenwriter and theres also talks of a TV show), commercial real estate ventures, humanitarian project efforts (her focus is on underprivileged youth and the elderly) and more, is rumored to become one of the world's most influential people of the decade. Yet, shes just as humble, fun and down-to-earth as she is beautiful (did I mention she had a spectacular voice???) The days of the true singer/entertainer are back. This is the fantasy poster girl you will definitely pin up and have dreams about...and at the same time...the classy full package youd bring home to meet mama. Cant wait. She is limitless. She is inevitably GOING to be a worldwide superstar. Fan-generated websites are already sprouting up about her all over the internet. She's an interesting girl, needless to say. You'll see. Special ringtones, web-only exclusives and early contests are on the way. Her official website will be released soon, complete with early fan club sign-up privileges. Until then...those fansites are serving appetizers. Are you still here? You have to get in on the LaDeana Michelle party NOW. I have a strong feeling the doors will be jammed packed later. No matter what...I know ILL be one of her biggest fans. R. Jackson
