Details: Lee Striemer is the type of guy you'd sit down and have a beer with, a good laugh over something fun and then a while later when you see him up on stage belting out some pop n reggae tunes that bring you into some good energy, you'll realize this guy's got something. He's got his own style. He's got a performance that's about fun and energy. And he's got a sound that's new-ique, mixed with a love for pop, reggae and rock. Right now, Lee is launching his first CD called Don't Knock It worldwide. The title song is truly about how Lee lives and performs don't knock it until you try it. The CD showcases how Lee pushes his hard rock lovin heart and jazz background to explore pop/rock and pop/reggae songs that are fused with dance/electronica. The result is an album full of uniqueness, energy and iPod-upload worthy songs. Currently, Lee's recordings are being plugged into play lists around the country and the world.
