This Christmas will feel empty for so many of these children. We ask that you please purchase your CD today and it also makes a great Christmas Gift. Please remember that these children have made the Ultimate Sacrifice that a child can make for their country...the loss of a parent in war. By purchasing the CD you will help us continue to help these children be 'kids again'. Many of these children did not receive benefits after the loss of their soldier parent and are struggling financially. Without your help they may never be able to experience the Magical 'pursuit of happiness' that their parents died for and OEC, with your help, can provide. OEC is a politically neutral organization. We strictly focus on the children. OEC believes that politics stops with the Children of Fallen Troops. Once you purchase your CDs go to opchristmasto see what your donations do for the children.
