RAIIN IS CURRENTLY WORKING ON PROJECT 2.... KEEP CHECKING THE WEBSITE FOR DETAILS ON THE NEW SINGLE.... Raiinsongwriter.'s crisp voice and gritty vibe bring back memories of 90's pop and r&b. And no wonder, since Raiin grew up in that era, listening to Janet Jackson and TLC. Her energy though, is something all it's own. On her album, Caramel Vol 1, that energy beckons you to enjoy life, be real and love like the first time. This energy is not just for the stage or studio. Raiin, the oldest child raised by her single mother from France, is fiercely independent. Spending just a moment with her you get the feeling something great is about to happen. That's because Raiin is all about making things happen. She didn't just dabble in the arts when she was younger, but won many awards for her artistic talent. When she discovered a love for poetry, she took it even further and penned her own poetry, performing spoken word at the Signature cafe in downtown Hartford. After getting a taste of the spoken word scene, she was hooked and performed in more venues in New York and Massachusetts, even recording a hook on one poet's album. Later, her penchant for action brought her to Atlanta Georgia to pursue an education in media production at American Intercontinental University at the age of 18. There she met Seantre', the producer, songwriter and vocalist who inspired her to put her spoken word poetry to music. Some of those first songs made it to her first album Caramel Vol. 1. The first song on the album is an upbeat, 90's style love song called "One and Only" . Blaze Beats, a producer on the album, also provides male vocals in this song. The title Track "Caramel" about a guy not keeping a date, is next. The rest of the album doesn't disappoint, switching between ethereal romanticism and down to earth conversation. A paradox that is reflective of Raiin's own personality. " I think being French gives me a passion for romance. The French are very romantic. But i'm also a very in the moment, down to earth person." Don't be fooled though, Raiin is already thinking about her next album. Her goal is to write for other singers. " I'd love to have people sing my songs." Raiin's goals with this and the upcoming project are to deliver clean, tasteful, and positive music for people to hear. Songs from this album can be heard on 90.7 WTCC FM Springfield and 89.9 CUTE FM Hartford *Currently performing around Masseurachusetts Please contact email for interest in booking Eternity - Great movie soundtrack song.
