A personal journey into another's trials, into one lost season, and ultimately into oneself. 18 MP3 Songs
FOLK: Folk-Rock, ROCK: Americana Details: This music was recorded on a broken leg, on hardwood floors, in the winter, mostly alone. Four months later, on the night it was completed, a power surge erased it. A rough mix made weeks prior was all that was left, and that became this album. The Fourth album of mine, more folksy, more rootsy than before. Acoustic-based, hand drums, banjo, shakers, etc. No drum set this time. This cd comes in a handsome 6 panel digipak, minimizing plastic content, and it is way more beautiful than your ipod screen. but i have mp3s too if that's your gig. I record and design all my albums independently on my own label, Screaming Cliffs. Purchasing independent music keeps the power in the artist's hands and we appreciate that. Thanks for your interest! Other releases by Ray Ottoboni: Collectors of Time as a Rare Disease Tragic Circle also: Wheeler Walker Ponder- In the Future (my first solo album, i play all the instruments) All these cds are available on CD Baby People who are interested in Wilco My Morning Jacket The Avett Brothers should consider this download.
