"Hasko's music is a mixed bag- on one track, she's part Gary Numan, part Siouxsie Sioux ; on another she's a further-out-there Tori Amos. It's creative and challenging stuff- highly recommended for those who prefer their pop sans bubblegum..." 12 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details:

"Call it a homecoming: Reba Hasko, who will perform as part of this evening's "Night of Experimental Pop Songs," was born right here in the Capital Region. Sure, the singer-composer-pianist has moved on- to the Crane School of Music in Potsdam, to San Francisco, to her current home of Berlin, Germany- but we're proud to call her one of our own. Hasko's music is a mixed bag- on one track, she's part Gary Numan, part Siouxsie Sioux; on another she's a further-out-there Tori Amos. It's creative and challenging stuff- not for everyone, mind you, but highly recommended for those who prefer their pop sans bubblegum..." Albany Metroland, NY. 12/05 The follow up to her live, acoustic album Live at Studio 43, Hasko wrote, recorded, programmed and produced her 12 song offering "Seeds from the Twisted Pear." Inspired by love, death, and the human condition in a city of reconstruction, these 12 recordings reflect her transition from a developing artist into a mature creative, digging her heels in and taking off.
