Raised in the suburbs of Maryland, Sistah Peaches has ventured out to become a Renaissance Woman, and has crafted the art of innovation and creativity through her music ministry. She has directed, sung and recorded with various gospel choirs and groups throughout the Washington, DC Metropolitan area. She is also a Workshop Speaker in the areas of Youth Outreach Awareness as well as Effective Praise and Worship, and is relocating to California to further her music and evangelistic ministries. This remarkable songstress has shared the stage with such gospel artists as Shirley Ceasar, Richard Smallwood, Vickie Winans, Hezekiah Walker and the legendary Frank Williams. She has also performed live background vocals for Steven Lawrence, Ron Winans and Tremaine Hawkins and has traveled to Paris, France to sing with Gospel Jazz Vocalist, Liz McComb just to name a few. Sistah Peaches has also arranged vocals for local recording artists as well as for a renowned European Artist, Ron White a.k.a. White-only. As a soloist, she has performed in concerts before multitudes of people throughout the Eastern Shores. With her strong anointed vibrant voice, Sistah Peaches has captivated the souls of her listeners. Anyone who knows her or comes in close contact with her, experiences Sistah Peaches' sweet spirit of giving and charismatic down-to-earth personality that could lift the heaviest soul. As a songwriter and vocalist, Sistah Peaches has a creative passion to produce jingles and media theme songs for corporations with national air play/time. She has also demonstrated that passion in her endeavors to come forth with the release of her first CD in March 2004. Sistah Peaches' CD entitled, "A Reflection of Him," is receiving national air-play in many market areas throughout the country due to its diversity in musical styling. She is a member of the following organizations: Stellar Awards Gospel Music Academy (SAGMA), Urban Gospel Alliance (UGA), Gospel Music Workshop of America Gospel Announcer Guild (GMWA-GAG), and Musicians United For Service In Christ (MUSIC). Sistah Peaches' determination to proclaim the unadulterated gospel and wondrous name of Jesus the Christ throughout all nations has proven her to be more than a conqueror. She says, "Until you become totally committed to God's will for your life by casting down every imagination that exalts itself above the knowledge of God, you will not have had experienced the fullness of His presence. My relationship with the Trinity is personal. I have to worship and praise God daily for sending His son, my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ to die for my sins. Then above all, loved me beyond measures by leaving me a comforter, a protector, and an advisor, the Holy Spirit, to continually prepare me for the calling that He has placed on my life." She is a free flowing vessel waiting to be used; she is "Peaches, Walking in the Fruit of the Spirit."
