With the sonic boom 808's in their crazy production, Trackteam consistently and flawlessly spits that fire through the entire album. 24 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: Trackteam Music Co. is more than just a record label, it is a family first. Signed to the label are artists 3rDegree, Premier Star, Young Sneek, and Ms. Dee. Based out of the ATL, the beginning of label was envisioned by 3rDegree (CEO) and Premier Star. While all of the members were friends prior to the forming of the label, it only made since to form a label showcasing the abilities of these artists. 3rDegree started off mainly as a producer, while Premier Star was one of the first artist associated with the label. As time went on and 3rDegree started to define what he wanted out of music, he began to make the switch over to artist himself, becoming one of the labels signature artists and defining the Trackteam Music Co. signature sound. Their signature sound is also heavily defined by their crazy in house production by the Trackaholics. One half of this production duo is Carnoy KO Neal, the younger brother of TLC member T-BOZ. The Trackaholics have worked with such artists as Jody Breeze, Bun B, MOS, and T-BOZ. With so many talented individuals already involved with the label, the later addition of Young Sneek and Ms. Dee has made Trackteam Music Co. an even stronger force to be reckoned with. With the release of their first collective mixtape, Let tha Bidding Begin vol. 1, Trackteam Music proves that they are not here to disappoint. With each of the members bringing something different to the table, the marriage between their styles makes for an unparalleled experience. Trackteam Music Co. is certain to take the reign of Southern Music to a whole new level.
