Details: In late 2006, Within Reason released their first EP titled "Cycle A Smile". Just three short months after releasing their first album ever, the band started 2007 with a bang. In January, the ballad "Hold" received over 50,000 votes online for Within Reason to appear and perform live on the hit T.V. show, "One Tree Hill" to an audience of over 4 million. Over the next few months the band shared the stage with many world known acts such as: Chevelle, Saliva, Crossfade, 10 Years, Black Stone Cherry, Days of the New, Plain White T's, Blues Traveler, 12 Stones, The Ataris, Trust Company, Taproot, Rehab, amongst others. By mid-May WR had been on worldwide T.V. twice and performed live in front of crowds with some of the many acts who have inspired the music they write. Since their television debut, the guys are selling tunes worldwide with a 4 star rating on iTunes. With support from their dedicated fans, the band was voted "Rock Band of the Year" and "Performer of the Year" for the 2007 BAMA Music Awards. So how do you close out such a big year and prepare for 2008? Playing at the world famous Whiskey A Go Go on New Years Eve is how these guys chose to do it. The single "Favorite Sin" was featured on a compilation disc with a segment on the band in the May 2008 issue of Metal Edge Magazine. Five songs on a new video game called Motomax 4 released in June 2008. In late summer 2008 Within Reason started on a new project with producer Rick Beato and released their sophomore album "Bloodshot Life" in February 2009.
