Here are key reasons why you need this product today: Secretly Spy On Your Competition - "Keep your friends close and your enemies closer!" Ok, maybe that's a bit dramatic, but you get the idea. If you know which sites link to your competition you can ask them to link to you too. Improves Your Search Engine Rankings - If you know how many sites are linking back to you now, you can increase your search engine rankings by simply contacting more high PageRank sites relevant to your site. Increases your website traffic - As other sites that you contact begin to link to your site, you will generate additional targeted traffic to your site without spending a dime. And more traffic means more sales! Tracks Your Linking Progress - If you have a starting point, you can track your results that much better. PR Ninja automatically tracks your campaigns and checks to make sure partner sites still link to you. Advanced Sorting Capabilities - With the click of your mouse you can arrange the list by URL, PageRank, Results Position, Keyword, Links In, Links Out and Score. The default sort is from most to least PageRank. Stores All Your Information - PR Ninja was designed as a time-saving tool. You can easily save your reports to your choice of folders or on a disk as CSV or HTML files. Pull them up whenever you want! Tags: seo
