

Probing Experience

DOWNLOAD HERE

Foreword; Fred Boekhorst.- Introduction: Probing Experience; Joyce H.D.M. Westerink, Martin Ouwerkerk, Therese Overbeek, Frank Pasveer, Boris de Ruyter.- Experience in Products; Joyce H.D.M. Westerink.- Part I: Probing in order to Quantify- 1. How was the experience for you just now? Inquiring about people's affective product judgements; Jettie Hoonhout.- 2. Atmosphere metrics: development of a tool to quantify experienced atmosphere; Ingrid Vogels.- 3. In Search of the X-factor to develop experience measurement tools; Ingrid Mulder Harry van Vliet.- 4. Probing Experiences: logs, traces, self-report and a sense of wonder; Erik Geelhoed, Josephine Reid, Richard Hull & Sharon Baurley.- 5. Objective emotional assessment of industrial products; Wolfram Boucsein & Florian Schaefer.- 6. Measuring experiences in gaming and TV applications: investigating the added value of a multi-view auto-stereoscopic 3D display; Rosemarie J.E. Rajae-Joordens.- 7. Sensing affective experience; Jennifer A. Healy.- 8. Brain, skin and cosmetics: sensory aspects objectivated by functional magnetic resonance imaging; Bernard Querleux.- 9. The assessment of stress; Ad J.J.M. Vingerhoets.- 10. Discovery of T-templates and their real-time interpretation using THEME; Magnus S. Magnusson.- Part II: Probing in order to Feed Back- 11. Where will the user "drive" future technology? Antonio Maria Calvosa & Amedeo Visconti.- 12. A wearable EMG monitoring system for emotions assessment; C. Vera-Munoz, L. Pastor-Sanz, G. Fico, M.T. Arredondo, F. Benuzzi & A. Blanco.- 13. Computing emotion awareness through galvanic skin response and facial electromyography; Joyce H.D.M. Westerink, Egon L. van den broek, Marleen H. Schut, Jan van Herk & Kees Tuinenbreijer.- 14. Unobtrusive sensing of psychophysiological parameters: some examples of non-invasive sensing technologies; Martin Ouwerkerk, Frank Pasveer & Geert Langereis.- 15. It's Heart rhythm not rate that counts: HeartMath studies and Freeze-Framer; Deborah Rozman, Rollin McCraty, & Dana Tomasino.- 16. Transformative experience on the home computer: lessons from the Wild Divine project; Kurt R. Smith.- 17. The emotional computer adaptive to human emotion; Mincheol Whang.- 18. Towards a Companion: using physiological measures for task adaptation; Ben Mulder, Dick de Waard, Piet Hoogeboom, Lennart Quispel Arjan Stuiver.- 19. The Usability of Cardiovascular and Electrodermal Measures for Adaptive 9781402065934 Publisher(s): Springer Netherlands Format: ePub/PDF Author(s): Westerink, Joyce H. D. M. - Ouwerkerk, Martin - Overbeek, Therese J. M.

Automation; Florian Schaefer, Andrea Haarmann & Wolfram Boucsein.- Index EAN/ISBN :

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

Probing Experience