Theres also the infectious Go that with its strong lyrical message and glittering harmonies that is nothing short of a showstopper. There are also the slower numbers where titles like Wave Goodbye and Hideaway show the versatility of Belle as a songwriter and performer. The music style could be described as pop-country with Scandinavian flavor always melodic, always very competent The album I am Yours was recorded, and mostly, written in Nashville during a two-year period. To make a long story short Belle started discussing with her producer Stephen Leiweke to record some demos a couple of years back and he always replied; Nah, well make an album instead. After some time Belle started suspecting that nothing would ever happen. But one day out of the blue the call came and it was Stephen saying; How about that record? Said and done and now the amazing result is available for all to hear. The title I am Yours is a statement to Belles life as a Christian and tells how she gives herself, strengths and weaknesses to her saviour. I am Yours is filled with personal and uplifting lyrics that tell the story of a woman finding here place in the world with the help of a living God always there, present. That journey is not without struggles and pain. But belle makes that journey with the conviction that everything will turn out for the best for those who believe and are ready to give themselves away. Belle had a dream of recording an album in Nashville, working with the best writers and producers along the way. With persistence, strong faith and her fantastic talent this is accomplished with I am Yours. A labor of love that carries stories that will be a blessing for all that will hear it!
