NOMINATED FOR 2003 GRAMMY_- BEST CONTEMPORARY BLUES ALBUM..... Buckets of soul and a truck load of heart, this is the music of Beth Raebeck Hall." -Michael Buffalo Smith; GRITZ Magazine 13

MP3 Songs ROCK: Roots Rock, BLUES: Rockin' Blues Details: Her eyes draw you in immediately. Her energy is infectious. This woman is passionate about music and life. She feels things intensely and is not afraid to let you know it. Is she from New Orleans or Memphis ? Listening to her, you 'd swear she was raised on a steady diet of Delta firewater, Memphis blues and New Orleans funk. It's not surprising that she's won the hearts of audiences young and old alike - her contagious presence sucks you into the heart of her soul-drenched funky rock roll. Beth 's music combines the sweaty, gutbucket emotion of R B and marries it to the sensitive melodic delivery of the singer-songwriter. Legendary Tower of Power member Rocco Prestia says : "this is one funky chick!!." Pretty funky indeed. He oughta know, Hall has opened for them several times- and Sonia Dada, the original Average White Band, War and Blood, Sweat and Tears, to name just a few. She was picked Best of City Stages by the Birmingham News along with Patti LaBelle and Randy Newman. But it is her writing that separates her from the pack. Just listen to either "She's Only Human" or "Beth Raebeck Hall - Live at Caffe Milano" Both reflect years of writing, performing and real life. Both are available at cdbaby You will not forget this woman. Hearing is believing. Know her name, now.
