Street Rap, Underground, Club Bangers, Gangstar love songs all in One. 16 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Black Diamond used the mix tape avenue to start and polish his act and sell himself as an underground artist. While performing at a club party in Washington DC in the fall of 2004, he met with MD based producer Boom Jay who immediately took him into his studio and insisted Black Diamond extend beyond the underground scene. The result is these proven club floor filler hip-hop/dance tracks contained in his forth coming debut album Prince of the Streets. Black Diamond (real name Abu Krumah) was born in 1983 in Liberia, West Africa. He Moved to Maryland in 1986 with his parents. While growing up in America he was captivated by the sound of Bob Marley and Alpha Blondy and grew up to like Tupac the Notorious B.I.G., Buju Banton, and others. These artists style have greatly influenced his music, but "...I always do my music based on goodtime and feeling... I don't preach or criticize... I simply try to create fun and relaxation... to last as long as a piece of diamond..." The Album was released on July 4 2005, and you can catch Black Diamond performing these singles at venues like the Deranch Lounge in Landover Maryland Prince of the Streets the 15 track album with the single Classy lady and How we ride have proven to do well in clubs like the Jaspers in Crofton Maryland, Hagerstown lounge club and crossroads Night club. The album (his debut) was immediately taken over by an Independent Record Label in England Homecity Records a division of Nataba after their A&R Representatives heard the tracks. They decided to Sign him on to a one Album deal. Black diamonds, who is currently under the label BoomBoom Entertainments (boomboomentertainments.net) based in Maryland, have been recording on a steady basis mixtape materials and he is currently half way into his next Album titled the The Coronation. The Mixtape combination titled PG Streets have been gradually landing into the hands of Hip-hop lovers within the county of Price Georges in MD and DC. The Coronation will contain a minimum of 16 tracks and it has already produced its first single "Unknown" which will be pushed out to the radio stations within the MD area.
