There's now a new genre called "Surf Mambo", it's an all instrumental blend of Latin, Surf and the Finest Flamenco Style Lead Guitar you'll ever hear. 9 MP3 Songs LATIN: Flamenco, ROCK: Surf Rock Details: Chris's new Instrumental CD "Full Moon in Cancun" has a strong Latin-Flamenco feel with Surf Guitar running all through it. Its hard to imagine the blend until you hear it but when you do you'll swear its the way it was always supposed to be! Growing up surfing in the San Diego area, Chris knows the surfing experience almost as much as the guitar experience so the two naturally had to come together. "Full Moon in Cancun" is all about listening and seeing pictures in your head. This is the perfect music to lay back and travel to parts of the world you always knew were out there, where you can smell both the surf and the perfume of the beautiful Mexican woman next to you in your cherry '48 Ford "Woody Wagon". National DJ Rick Dees started calling Chris the "King of Instrumental Background" about a year ago when he first heard his CD saying, "Artists spend their whole lives shooting for a "hit" which is all I play on my show and then their's Chris! He never even wanted a hit, and now look what he has done with that concept!" Says Chris, "Looking back at the Days when I spent every day working with singing artists on that "tried and proven Nashville formula for a hit song", I wouldnt trade this for the world!" Marketing plans include targeting listeners that want the perfect music for dreaming, working, kickin' back, or going down the road. Also licensing for surf films and other commercial ventures are being consedered.
