Cindy Duffie's debut CD - A pinch of Steely Dan, a smidgen of Joni Mitchell, a generous helping of Carole King, and some sweet yet tangy Bonnie Raitt Sounds appetizing, doesn't it? Try some, you'll go back for seconds 7 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Cindy McCord, formerly Cindy Duffie, has been singing, writing, and performing practically all her life. She grew up in a musical household, and pursued her dreams of stardom in both high school and college. Once out of school, and after much self-discovery, she eventually settled down in Delaware County, Pennsylvania. During the day, Cindy works for the PA based children's music program, "Makin' Music," (makin-music.com) where she introduces pre-school children to the joys of music. Cindy draws upon her own life experience when writing her songs. Like all of us, she has been through the ups and downs of relationships, the frustrations of trying to follow a dream, and the day to day challenge of just "getting by". From the painful longing and indecision of "(Love Can Be) Unkind", to the infatuated daydreaming of "Kiss You", to the unbridled exuberance of "Fallin' Into You", Cindy covers the myriad of human emotions. "Not Your Typical Housewife", the debut CD from Cindy McCord (formerly Cindy Duffie), features top-notch production and the talents of some of Philly's finest musicians - Chuck Treece (Schooly D, Urge Overkill, Aunt Pat) on drums, Conley "Tony" Whitfield (Bilal, Jaguar Wright) on the bass, and Jay Davidson (Phila. 76ers House Band, toured with Steve Winwood) on saxophone and keys, as well as assuming co-producer duties. On guitar is Cindy's husband and part-time collaborator, Chris McCord (Dennis Selfridge, Chef Eddy, The Dovells, Zan Gardner, Donnie Allen, Brendan McKinney, One Shot Deal, Coupe De Ville). The terrific Kelleen Cogan, known to her fans as country-rocker Patsy Foster, provides backing vocals along with Neysa Ricciardi. Rick Prince provides the low-end thump on "Fallin' Into You", and the talented guitarist Ron Jennings provides slippery slide work on "I Want You Back" and "Kiss You". Percussionist extrordinaire Pete Barnhart provides the percussion spice. Please give Cindy McCord (Cindy Duffie) an honest listen... You'll know what she's talking about!!!
