The album includes old and also new songs that got a remix version. Elisete: "This album was inspired by my audience and fans. Many of them requested to hear my songs also in an electronic version. Now, all those that liked my albums, in Israel as well as abroad, can enjoy them in clubs as well." Electronic music is not unfamiliar to Elisete. Significant traces of it can be found in her previous albums. After the release of 'Gaagua' and after two of her songs were included in the Israeli movie 'Ha bua' (The Bubble), it was only natural for Elisete to accept the proposals of many producers and DJs in Israel to remix her songs. The production of this CD was made by Elisete and other prominent Israeli producers. The new album contains mostly her songs in Portuguese. About Elisete Elisete was born in Brazil and came to Israel in 1991 directly to the Gulf war that was the background for the period when she acquired her Hebrew. Her life story is a long Saga with optimistic conclusions. Elisete says she sings to bring joy to the Israeli people. Cynics reading this declaration will laugh. Cynics hearing her say it will be engulfed by her magic and believe it. With this drive and with her energy and joy Elisete sings about life in the most Israeli perspective and also the most Brazilian one. The lines of Elisete have warmth, simplicity and a lot of love. Her voice and rhythm take us to her unique Brazil that is always in her heart. Elisete's optimism and huge smile echoes through her albums making it easy to get carried away by her songs into the sunny Brazil she carries in her heart. People who are interested in Sade Bebel Gilberto Marisa Monte should consider this download.
