For the first time recorded, unknown written pieces making a cocktail of tango, merenge, salsa, bossa nova. A tribute to life and its emotions, from love to sorrow, from tears to an explosion of joy. 13 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Chamber Music, WORLD: South American Show all album songs: Musica Latina for flute and piano Songs Details: DUO MILONGA JACQUES LESBURGUERES - FLUTE MARTINE LAURE - PIANO All along this disc, the Duo Milonga surprises us by the emotion it carries. Its music becomes pictures, its concert, a film for blind people. Along the score, it makes us share its feelings, which go from tender to explosive, produced by a brilliant technical mastering : A amazing mixture of stability and surprise, making a cocktail which reveals a big show ! This disc is a tribute to life, ... to be listened without moderation ! Robert THUILLIER co-soloist flutist, Swiss-RomanOrchestra Complete musician, arranger, teacher, author of didactic pieces for flute, and fond of music any style, Jacques Lesburgures makes us share his faith. Through his constant search of colours, he obtains a variety of tones and shades leading us by turns from the deapest misery of the suburbs of Buenos-Aires or Rio, to the craziest hope it has made come to life. Gifted with a free and natural expression, he tells the story of this piece of South America, where he carries us, conquered and blissfull, like kids hanging upon every word of the narrator. A dream Superb pianist, Martine Laure is brilliant in the interpretation of this Latino-Music. She installs there a rigourous rythm, without forgetting the lascive underlying rubato. Also gifted with a natural sense of phrasing and of colours, she perfectly sustains the flute without ever covering it, often leaving to it the initiative of interpretation. She skilfully puts up the scenery and unrolls with discretion the stage curtain for the story which is going to be told. Her gemmy sound leads to a fluid music, which flows, wraps us and without our knowledge immerses us in a relaxing bath. A treat ...
