A powerful work for choir, orchestra, and soloists celebrating the life and mission of Joseph Smith. 20 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Musicals/Broadway, CLASSICAL: Traditional Details: "Joseph Smith the Prophet" is a powerful and moving tribute to the Mormon prophet-leader Joseph Smith. The beautifully recorded work features choir, full orchestra, narrators and outstanding soloists including Sharon Norris-Hopkins, Suzanne Sittichai, Greg Adams, and Rob Gardner. "Joseph Smith the Prophet" comes from composer Rob Gardner, composer of "He is Jesus Christ" and "The Price of Freedom." It was completed when he was only 23 years old and has since been performed all over the world for an estimated total audience of almost 100,000. The work includes powerful and moving new compositions as well as exciting new arrangements of "The Spirit of God," "A Poor Wayfaring Man of Grief" and "Praise to the Man." The lyrics and narration come largely from the writings of the Prophet himself and those who knew him.
