"Shamrocks In The Wind" is a Celtic Folk Ballad Duo dedicated to keeping Irish/Celtic/Folk Ballads alive through fun, up-beat, audience participation shows. "Shamrocks In The Wind" performs nationally and internationally at festivals, Celtic Games, concerts, luxury resorts, pubs, country clubs and special events. Everywhere "Shamrocks In The Wind" performs, rave reviews follow. "The Burden Family absolutely LOVED your performances. Please let us know should you ever find yourself in our native town, Washington D.C.", The Burdens.....@ O'Flaherty's Irish Channel Pub "in the French Quarter", New Orleans " John and Karol were loved by the audience here as they carried us from laughter to tears. We sang along with all of our favorites and they introduced us to some new songs as well..... What a dynamic duo!!!" ...Tina Park Rose Helser, Entertainment Directors, Wauchula, Florida "I was highly impressed. You held the audience to the end of a four hour show! I will absolutely book you for next year. If anyone ever needs a recommendation, just have them call me." Aelred Gannon, Owner, "The Pub", Oconomowoc, Wisconsin "We were very pleased with your performance and look forward to having you at our games again in the future."Betty MacConnell, Entertainment Director, Sarasota Highland Games, Sarasota, Florida " You guys are great! You can come back here and play anytime you want, just give us a call!" Bill Dempsey, Owner Manager, Dempsey's Brewpub, Watertown, South Dakota "Shamrocks In The Wind" performs a wide range of folk music from traditional ballads to rollick'n sea songs. We tailor each show to the audience and the venue. For retirement centers we do a fun, upbeat, foot tapping show of mostly well known classic folk songs. "Shamrocks In The Wind" is a highly professional touring folk duo. We have been invited to perform alongside such nationally famous acts as "The Kingston Trio," "The Wolfetones" and folk music legend, Glen Yarbrough. We have recently

performed in Ireland and Jamaica.
