Thomascows version of Walk Right Back is a 1960s song written by Sonny Curtis (born May 9, 1937, in Meadow, Texas) He was a teenage pal and band member with Buddy Holly in Lubbock, Texas, and wrote this song while in the army, showed it to The Everly Brothers when he was home on leave. They liked it and recorded it as B-side to "Ebony Eyes. Sonny had not finished it then and was to write the second verse and send it on The Everlys didn't receive it in time so they just sang the first verse twice on the recording. Enjoy
