Soul - a race unto itself 7 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Soul, EASY LISTENING: Love Songs Details: Eluding all definition, labels and pigeonholes, a race of angels makes music that is both epic and understated, the debut release, broadcast no. 1, is soulful, emotive, electronic, organic, thought-provoking, and above all else, completely unique. A humane vision underpins the cinematic scope of the music, inviting and compelling listeners to pay attention from start to finish. broadcast no. 1 elicits the kind of emotional response that gives it a timeless, classic appeal, transcending boundaries of genre. XLR8R Magazine: Peace, love, and soul from a slightly mysterious collective channelling Motown, folk, and just a dash of Soul II Soul. Deliciously uplifting, all songs (barring the intro number), are driven by a tender, quavering tenor, with synths and strings swelling to grand effect on We and Michael The Force. It all builds to a splendid finish with Love Is the End, an epic, pulsing slab of downtempo that is both insistent and charmingly hesitant before it breaks down into a spaced-out echo-fest. a race of angels is truly a race unto itself. Garth Trinidad: "a race of angels makes soul music with reckless abandon. Their approach is alien and refreshing to the world." "a race of angels is the sound of new-born beauty, oozin outta speakers like electric molasses."
