Details: This album "Andy Mason Stories Told" is collection of recently written folk songs from Andy Mason, who is a San Francisco Bay Area Native. Andy is a singer/songwriter/activist who crafts songs about politics, pollution, human rights, and daily slice-of-life stories. The style of this album is a gritty folk, americana, alt-country vibe. Look for the sounds of guest bay area local musicians playing lilting Pianos, warm pedal steel guitars, bright telecasters, and thundering acoustic bass. Andy plays acoustic guitar and sings on all the tracks. Harp is played throughout the album but used on roughly half the tracks. Every song is done differently with a common human theme. Every "Story Told" is done in a unique style...Take your time pull up an easy chair and a glass of beer and listen to "Andy Mason Stories Told"
