A reflective but upbeat vocal gets the point across. Has a retro-pop feel, which creates an instant familiarity with listeners. 5 MP3 Songs POP: British Pop, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: You might be familiar with the Ellesse advertising campaign that caused a stir in the UK. Called "For Play", it was banned -- too many cars were crashing because drivers were distracted by the billboards. At the center of this controversy was Danish supermodel Anine Bing, whose sexy picture was the focus of the advertisement. Anine Bing was born in Denmark, grew up in Sweden and is Brazilian. She has lived in England, and now makes her home in both Sweden and Los Angeles, California. Her international living situation makes her comfortable on both sides of the Atlantic. She has been called the new Helena Christensen (the other internationally-famous supermodel from Denmark). She is having a successful career as a model, and is fortunate to have the whole world become her workplace. Anine started out at the age of seven taking classical violin lessons, but soon gave that up for singing. She sang in the Royal Danish Academy of Musics choir for many years, honing her vocal skills. Its true that talent, beauty and intrigue come in many forms. But you can find all three in this vocally-gifted artist. And it would be no surprise if she were to be the UKs next pop music singer to climb to the top of the charts. Working with the writing/production team of John Baxter Ingemar Aberg, Anine has been writing new songs, recording, and preparing for the release of her debut CD from Audeopop Music.
