My experiences with the ocean, its life forms and the people of the Cape, are a large part of who I am, says Peck, who has taught sailing and scuba diving for years. Its as if the sounds of the Cape have become background music in my ears. Give me my guitar, my dog Shelby, and a sailboat balanced on the wind, and Im happy. Give me a place to sing about it to others and Im in heaven. Peck performs solo, as a member of the popular group Big Fish, and as part of a duo with longtime friend and bass guitar player Bob Smith. Some of my favorite times have been when I was singing and playing guitar, Peck says. I cannot remember a time when music wasnt a part of my life. I cut my musical teeth on blues and rock when I was a teen-ager and started a group called Three Penny Opera. I went to sleep playing Sunshine of My Love and woke up playing The House of the Rising Sun. Peck especially enjoys performing My Friend, My Dog, a song he wrote about his beloved Golden Retriever-Chow while sitting on First Encounter Beach in Eastham, Pecks hometown. Other original songs that are regularly part of his sets include: Summer Sun, Hidden Path, Ill Sail, Beach In My Toes and Whales Around The Bend. Production on Pecks first CD Wind In My Sails is just complete.
