From rootsy acoustic folk to balls-out power rock Haymaker have not been limited nor confined to the typical everything sounds the same genre. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: The core of Haymaker is Seattle based duo Chris Wright and Lance Bachler, who met in a Northwest high school where they had a smorgasbord of influences inflicted on them. Based on witty lyrics and engaging guitar lines, these two have entertained from Bremerton to Santa Fe and everywhere in between. The chops have been honed through 16 years of song-writing and experience, but with flavor and fun always the key ingredient. During a 5 year hiatus after school, where Chris moved to Arizona and formed the band Jamie's Brother, while Lance stayed and formed his own band, Groove Movement, the two were still expecting to get back together when the time was right. That time is now. After spending a few months writing a ton of material, they've released their debut self-titled CD. With the addition of Mark Hoover and Clark Hoover to round out the live performance, Haymaker has been playing local Seattle-area venues.
