PEACE WILL COME Lyrics and Music by Neil Rosengarden We've got to stop all of this fighting And find a way to compromise If we don't show a little kindness We're setting up for our demise I've got to stand beside my brother And help him out when he is down We're gonna work it out together Black, Red, Yellow, White, and Brown It's not impossible nor unlikely That people could learn to live together There is a cycle for everything that flows Maybe now peace will come for everyone It's not impossible nor unlikely

That people could learn to live together There is a cycle for everything that flows Maybe now peace will come for everyone La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la la, la, la, la, la It's not impossible nor unlikely That people could learn to live together There is a cycle for everything that flows Maybe now peace will come for everyone COMES A GIRL I ONCE KNEW Lyrics by Michael Novak Music by Neil Rosengarden The silence swears to keep everything to itself If only for tonight If only for tonight From the corner of my mind comes a girl I once knew She was all I ever wanted

That girl was you - Oh, yeah I close my weary eyes Darkness is my refuge This is a lonely life A cold and lonely life From the corner of my mind comes a girl I once knew She was all I ever wanted That girl was you Silence doesn't keep it's word It let's the world back in With it's questions of why and remember when From the corner of my mind comes a girl I once knew She was all I ever wanted That girl is you - Oh, yeah Silence doesn't keep it's word It let's the world back in With it's questions of why and remember when From the corner of my mind comes a girl I once knew She was all I ever wanted That girl is you - Oh, yeah That girl is you, you, you, you, you you, you, you, you, you PANORAMA MAN Lyrics and Music by Neil Rosengarden Was it really all that different way back then The colors that are faded? I remember all the things that you might do To try to come off jaded You'd come in a ridin' on your silver horse Your hands they would be flailin' After all the hooey you would run off course Instead of nice smooth sailin' Now everything's orange Sun slipping to water Come witness the carnival you left behind You panorama man If you look around into the sky tonight The trees all look like soundwaves And I know that you're somewhere looking at the moon You panorama man Now everything's orange Sun slipping to water Summer is the time to take another look As nobody else can You panorama man Was it really all that different way back then When colors weren't so faded? I remember all the things that you might do To try to come off jaded Now everything's orange Sun slipping to water Summer is the time to take another look As nobody else can Like panorama man You panorama man Panorama man I'M RIDING ON AIR originally released on THE PLAID ALBUM Lyrics and Music by Neil Rosengarden I'm riding on air My children were just signed up for day care They'll love it there I'm much too busy these days Now they're out of my hair Here is summertime my friend I'll bake a cake to commemorate me No more distraction I'm finally free I'll take a course to improve my self-worth Why did I bother to even give birth? Was married to Sam But now I can really see who I am I'll take it all The world revolves around me Any idiot can see Wash my underwear on key I'll keep on taking as long as I can Living and breathing in fantasy land I will gain power and riches and fame Every psychiatrist will know my name HOT DATE Lyrics and Music by Neil Rosengarden Does your minister know you're here? Does he whisper "baked potato" in your ear?

Am I three weeks to late to get a hot date with you? Did the Pilgrims find no land When they saw the prosecution of The Hand? Am I just too morose to get a little dose of you? Obligato sostenuto mama papa baby oh yeah Do you know that I am just a figment of your peapod when the Moon is full of heaven and your pants are too long? Leave me today Can you rid yourself of poultry in your way? I give up so get down and be my baby now Obligato sostenuto mama papa baby oh yeah Do you know that I am just a figment of your peapod when the Moon is full of heaven and your pants are too long? Won't you come and light this man's fire? It's what I really, really, really desire Am I three weeks too late To have a hot date with you? Am I three weeks too late To have a hot date with you? I'D BE A FOOL TO TRY originally released on THE PLAID ALBUM Lyrics and Music by Neil Rosengarden Once in a lifetime you see her The one with the innocent smile You think you've made a big hit But you're out by a mile She can't be wooed with your flowers Gets nauseous when you start to sing Why is she full of these powers? I'm cautious as anything I'm walking down the lonesome road How can I help but cry - Oh! Lickety split I'm back in the shit I'd be a fool to try I went to school for the summer to learn Patagonian law Had a big crush on the teacher And now it's all raw We spent our days at the ocean Then mystical nights at the sea I felt like Amos and Andy Whenever she smiled at me I'm walking down the lonesome road How can I help but cry - Oh! Lickety split I'm back in the shit I'd be a fool to try And now my days they are numbered I seem to have run out of words I gave the one with the innocent smile to the birds She joined a convent on thursday By friday night she balled the Pope Saturday she was found hanging From Bony Maroni's rope I'm walking down the lonesome road How can I help but cry - Oh! Lickety split I'm back in the shit I'd be a fool to try IN LOS ANGELES Lyrics and Music by Neil Rosengarden There's a place I wanna be in Los Angeles There's a girl I gotta see up on the beach, yeah Find a table in the back in Los Angeles Where I can tell her 'bout my fantasy So come on baby get me on a train There is no other place I'm s'posed to be So come on baby, get me on a train The pollution in the air in Los Angeles Is removing all the hair up on my head, yeah Everybody got a stare in Los Angeles There is no reason now for me to stay So come on baby, get me on a plane That girl I used to know has moved away So come on baby, buzz me to her brain LIKE A MAGNET originally released on THE PLAID ALBUM Lyrics and Music by Neil Rosengarden Woke up this morning I was thinkin' 'bout you Like a magnet attracting me to All of the emotions that were buried so long Like a magnet so small and so strong How am I to resist? Being with you just shouldn't be missed Don't try pulling away Wouldn't you rather stay? Gotta be careful 'cause I've seen this before So connected while living in war I try to run but it's all I can do Like a magnet attracted to you How am I to resist? Being with you just shouldn't be missed Don't try pulling away Wouldn't you rather stay? It doesn't matter what the outcome may be Just the feeling is freedom to me So go where you will go to do what you do Like a magnet I'm attracted to you MARY Lyrics and Music by Neil Rosengarden Mary - you don't have to make the sky turn blue Carry - everybody's problems in your shoe Almost all your life you've taken care of someone else You thought that you had to Now it's time to change it all around and be my girl 'Cause I'm in love with you - Mary When I think about the time I spend without you - apathy DON'T STOP NOW Lyrics and Music by Neil Rosengarden Listen to me babe before you miss the mark Everybody thinks that you're crazy You don't even see the faces in the dark Never have I seen you too lazy Don't stop now - the people would be so turned down And if you did I would not allow my feelings to be Brushed back to the underground I know you like to talk alot about your big own self And can't accept a simple direction Put your inconsistencies upon the shelf Only then you'll make the connection Don't stop now - the people would be so turned down And if you did I would not allow my feelings to be Brushed back to the underground You don't understand when you fade away You can't understand, now You can't understand when you fade away You can't understand, now You can't understand when you fade away You can't understand, now You can't understand when you fade away You can't understand, now Listen to me babe before you miss the mark Everybody thinks that you're crazy You don't even see the faces in the dark Never have I seen you too lazy Don't stop now - the people would be so turned down And if you did I would not allow my feelings to be Brushed back to the underground 1990, 2006 All songs published by Neil Rosengarden Music - BMI used by permission Arranged and Produced by Neil Rosengarden cover photo by Clarence Berger (Leo's Mom)
