Details: I've known Terry since we were kids,so when he ask me to write his bio for his second cd, I was glad to. I remember aunt Mary saying Terry would be in some kind of show buiness one day,he was always showing off and making us laugh. I still have fond memories of aunt Rachel playing her silvertone and Terry's mother singing those old gospel songs. I think aunt Rachel and his mother had the first inspiration for him playing guitar he was always borrowing aunt Rachel's silvertone,she never complained she was such a sweet person. Anyway, to the first track[standing in line] a song saying how populated the usa has become. There is a message there. The second track[sad state] is about the things we see on the tv news,the things that our children are suffering because government state. The third track [mystic eye]is story about guitarist whose is amused about the story about going down to the crossroads to sell thier soul to the devil in order to play guitar. When all they had to do was ask GOD in faith and beleive and thier prayers would be answered without losing thier only soul. The forth track [mexico] is about the subject of the mexican border Terry wrote this song before Lou Dobbs began his report. The fifth track[deep water] is about how it can become when two people become emotionally involved. The sixth track[luckmaster] was inspired by Terry's grandson Ben Turner, who is the luckmaster. it is related to the explosion od video games,tv poker.online games,etc. The seventh track[walk my blues away] is just that, try it,it works. The eight song [free wild] is about before 911 when we just weren't thinking homeland security. The ninth track[empty heads-rat-a-tat-tat] was written on a haloween, if you listen close you can hear the ghost and it reminds me of another friend of mine. THE tenth track[runner] is kind of like rock and roll The eleventh track[doing time] Terry wanted this song dedicated to those who have been and still are falsely imprisoned. To top it off second cd of Terry's is just great, you just got to check it out.
