Aiyana-Lee is only 7 years old and her Album contains pop, r&b and hip hop songs: originals and cover versions. She was many times compared with Michael Jackson. I'm sure that was because of her age. 11 MP3 Songs in this album (29:52) ! Related styles: POP: with Live-band Production, HIP-HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: AIYANA-LEE ANDERSON Singer/Songwriter/model/child-actor/dancer 7 years old Born into an aristocratic family with ties to the Royal Family on her mother's side, (mom that is also a gifted singer / song writer, having had written amongst others, the No.1 Hit Single "If You Come Back"/Blue) and MOTOWN pedigree as she is the granddaughter of the MOTOWN Legend Jimmy Ruffin and the niece of David Ruffin from The Temptations, Aiyana-Lee, is a stunning looking girl, with an "old soul", strong minded, and blessed with the gift of singing, dancing and acting abilities. By the time she was only three years old, she already won three modeling competitions and recorded her first album, entitled "Who I Am" that sold nearly 1 million copies in Europe. Aiyana-Lee also performed alongside her mom in the tours that they've had in Europe, ex. Romania, Germany, (TV performances, Press Interviews, opening International Festivals singing live to over 100,000 people, and many more). At 4 years old, Aiyana-Lee wrote the melody and lyrics to the song Stars that won her the First Place in the International Competition Nurnberg at the category Creation. In June 2007, at only 5 years of age, Aiyana-Lee won the first place at the International Singing Competition in Germany, although she went against 16 year olds! Aiyana-Lee starred in TV Commercials and played a role in two different movies in Europe. Her skills as a child actor were enhanced at Sylvia Young Theatre School in London. At present Aiyana-Lee who just returned from her second promotional tour in Europe, has finished the video clips for her first three singles called Buggin Invincible (filmed in Europe) and the cover song Listen (from Dreamgirls sung by Beyonce) filmed in London. Buggin is telling the story about the talented child that is getting frustrated when is told to play with dolls by adults that dont understand their talent and aspirations, while Invincible shows that although you have to know your own mind in order to stand on your own two feet, you cannot stand alone, you do need the support of your parents. Some children will completely identify with those songs, others will get the positive message to heart, as they are told by a child; in either case is a win, a plus, a positive idea for kids put forth in an ever negative World. Both songs are a reflection of Aiyana-Lees mind and thinking, as she co-wrote those songs with her mom. In all, Aiyana-Lee is a very happy and gifted child, liked and loved by everyone who meets her, a child that is always looking forward to new challenges and has unlimited dreams and aspirations.
