Details: The Man. Shape Daniel Woodis aka D. Class, Jack of all Trades; Master of

One.....Perseverance! Baltimore native, D. Class is one the most talented in the industry of music as we know it today. This multi faceted artist is not limited in his areas of creativity, vision or inspiration. With the exception of GOD he is fearless. D. Class portfolio spans from artist, accomplished producer, label owner to Holy Hip-Hop fashion and music innovator. The many layers of this hip hop giant in the making are simple. Through God, hard work and dedication he has overcome some of the obstacles that normally keep people down. The Artist As explained by Class himself, the new album "The Book of Daniel" is nothing short of the heart of a man 16 bars at a time. The schedule album release date is March 2006 and it is highly anticipated by the public. The DJ D. Class quickly became a product of hip hop in the beginning when it was about life, pain and the side of America that the masses didn't see. With a floor model stereo set and a dream he began to mimic Red Alert and Marley Marl with one goal in mind...to be one the hottest that ever did it. As the Neighborhood DJ, he played at all of the school dances and created a few groups in the process. He was the DJ for a female M.C. Infinity and locally famous battle rapper, Crush. In 1990, Young Class made another group called No Question with a man named Rated R which is now known in the holy hip hop world as Ric FLO from one of the hottest rap duos Platinum Souls. As a DJ, he has broke new ground and new music for years at secular night clubs across the east coast. His love for playing hot music is unmatched. The Producercreativity Making moves as a producer is the most important part the talent behind D. Class. He has brought people to the airwaves of Atlanta on the Frank Wanda Morning show on V-103 every morning with the theme song that wakes them all up along with Larry Tinsley's "Sunday Morning Praise" theme song. To the credit of D. Class' resume, he has produced a number of things in the industry. Professional Music History McDonald's - I'm lovin it (theme music) BET's - Cita's World (theme music) Mike Phillips - Unwrapped Vol.2 (intro) Ballers Forever Compilation - Bahlers feat Jay- Z, No Money Teflon the Bull Cecil B. Demented Soundtrack Sisqo - Got to get it (rmx) Shai - He doing you wrong (rmx) Platinum Souls - Let me be Platinum Souls - Platman Skyy - How I got it Here I Go Artight - Intro Big Weaze - We ain't going nowhere
