This feeling of deep appreciation can be heard and felt throughout every note on his new cd, "Old School Groovin' with Freddie Terrell". This cd is a compilation of tracks that are more than just smooth jazz remakes. It's an artist using the best of his talents to tell a story of his heartfelt respect for songs that have moved a generation and are just as fresh as the day the original artists recorded them. The best on-air personalities know deep down inside it's not the notes alone played on an instrument that makes a song great. It's the artist's talent plus their intention for every note played in a song that makes it great. Here's your opportunity to help a grateful artist spread his intentions of respect and admiration for some truly memorable songs.
